By Command.

JAMES BAKER,
Provincial Secretary.

Rules and Regulations for carrying out the Provisions of the "Dyking Debenture Act, 1897."

Whereas under an Act to authorise the redemption of certain Debentures issued for the construction of dyking works, and subject thereto to authorise the expenditure of additional moneys in the strengthening, extending and repair of certain dykes, the Government is authorised to purchase all or any of the Debentures more particularly described in the Schedule to the said Act, that is to say: Debentures issued by the District of Maple Ridge, amounting to $80,000; Debentures issued by the District of Maple Ridge, amounting to $46,000; Debentures issued by the District of Sumas, amounting to $18,000; Debentures issued by the District of Coquitlam, amounting to $70,000; Debentures issued by the Pitt Meadows Dyking District, amounting to $60,000; Debentures issued by the District of Matsqui, amounting to $50,000; and provision is also made by the said Act for raising by the sale of Debentures upon the credit of the Government of the additional sum of $150,000, and the expenditure of the same in strengthening, repairing and extending the dykes:

And whereas the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has determined to raise the said sum of $150,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the strengthening, repairing and extending of dykes within those districts desirous of the expenditure, and in respect of which purchase shall have been effected of the Debentures heretofore issued:

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as follows, that is to say:—

A.—As soon as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall be satisfied, upon the report in writing of the Honourable the Minister of Finance, that a satisfactory contract or contracts have been made with the holders thereof for sale to the Government of the hereinbefore recited Debentures of any or either of the said districts, or of a sufficient proportion thereof to warrant the Government, in the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, in applying these Rules; and upon the Lieutenant-Governor being satisfied that such Debentures have been duly deposited with some chartered bank within the Province, to be delivered to the Finance Minister upon the carrying out of any such agreement, then the Lieutenant-Governor may, by further Order in Council, direct that paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of these Regulations shall apply to the District in respect to the Debentures of which such satisfactory agreement has been made:

B.—The person to be appointed Inspector of Dykes, as provided in section 1 of these Rules, may be appointed for two or more Districts:

C.—The Finance Minister shall, within two months from publication of these Regulations in the British Columbia Gazette, make a final report of the Districts in respect of which agreements and deposits have been made, pursuant to section A hereof:

D.—Within three weeks afterwards the Inspector or Inspectors shall send in the report or reports mentioned in paragraph 2 of these Regulations, of the requisite amount expended and to be expended in his District in repair and for expenses, and the Lieutenant-Governor may then carry out the agreements for purchase of Debentures in the Districts reported upon, and may also borrow and raise in manner pointed out by the "Dyking Debenture Act, 1897," such sum of money not to exceed $150,000, as may be requisite to meet the amount certified and reported by the Inspector or Inspectors:

E.—The purchased Debentures and the Debentures to be issued for repayment of the sum of $150,000, or so much thereof as may be borrowed for the purpose of strengthening, repair and extension of dykes and the expenses thereof, shall bear a uniform rate of interest of 3½ per cent. per annum, in addition to which interest moneys a sinking fund of 1½ per cent. per annum upon the aggregate amount of purchased Debentures and new Debentures shall be payable for redemption of the same; such interest moneys and sinking fund shall be payable half yearly to the Inspector within and for his District, and shall be a charge upon the lands and be assessed against the owners thereof in manner provided by the "Drainage, Dyking and Irrigation Act, 1894," and recoverable by the same process:

F.—From and after the further Order in Council mentioned and referred to in paragraph A hereof, the following regulations shall apply to the District mentioned in such further Order in Council.

1. The powers of the Commissioners holding office under the "Drainage, Dyking and Irrigation Act, 1894," shall forthwith cease and determine, and their appointments shall become null and void, and thereupon all the powers and authorities heretofore exercisable by the Commissioners shall be transferred to and be exercisable by an officer to be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to be called the Inspector of Dykes. The Commissioners shall forthwith hand over and give up possession to the Inspector of all books, papers, accounts and documents relating to the works.

2. Forthwith after his appointment the Inspector of Dykes shall report to the Lieutenant-Governor by certificate in writing under his hand the requisite amount to be provided for expenditure in his district under the following heads:—

(a.) The strengthening, repair, completion and extension of the dyking works, including all charges for salaries and expenses of inspectors, engineers, the officers mentioned in the "Drainage, Dyking and Irrigation Act, 1894," and any other officers requisite in fulfilling the premises, and also all incidentals:

(b.) The maintenance of the dyking works during the currency of the Debentures, including the collection of rates and the payment of salaries and expenses of all officers and all incidentals:

(c.) The amount of the expenses heretofore incurred by the Government on account of supervision, inspection and otherwise.

3. In the event of any rates or assessments becoming delinquent and having been advanced by the Finance Minister under section 8 of the "Dyking Debenture Act, 1897," the same shall bear interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum until paid, and the Inspector shall at any time, upon warrant directed to him under the hand of the Minister of Finance setting forth the amount of interest accrued, raise and levy the same together with the costs and expenses of the levy by special assessment, and the same may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods of the persons liable to pay the same.

4. The Inspector shall account for and pay all moneys levied, collected and received by him by virtue of his office from time to time to the Finance Minister, who shall keep two accounts with the District in respect of such moneys, one to be called "The Interest Account," the moneys to the credit of which account shall be expended as the general revenue of the Province, and the other account to be designated "The Sinking Fund Account," the moneys to the credit of which account shall from time to time be invested at interest upon such securities and in such amounts as the Lieutenant-Governor shall from time to time determine.

5. The salary of the Inspector shall be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and shall be paid monthly, and his travelling expenses shall also be fixed and allowed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, who shall also in case the Inspector shall act for more than one district, apportion his salary and allowances between the districts, and the salary and allowances, or the proportionate part thereof, shall be charged against each district as a portion of the expense of constructing the dykes.

6. Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, sub-sections (c), (d), and 2 and 3 of section 12, the last nine lines of section 16, sections 21, 49, 50, 51, 52 and 53, of the "Drainage, Dyking and Irrigation Act, 1894," shall not apply to the works to be carried on under these Rules, nor to the Inspector to be appointed hereunder, but the remainder of the said Act shall mutatis mutandis apply except that wherever Commissioners, or a majority of them, are referred to in the said Act the Inspector of Dykes alone shall be held to be substituted, and wherever in the said Act moneys are authorised to be collected and received by the Commissioners for their own use, or no reference is made to the appropriation of such moneys, the same shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury.

7. Before entering upon the duties of his office the Inspector shall take an oath (which shall be filed in the Provincial Secretary's office) before a Justice of the Peace, and also give security to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to faithfully perform the duties of his office. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may likewise require any other officers or persons employed under the Commissioner to be sworn and to give adequate security for fulfilling their office.

8. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint the several officers mentioned in section 21 of the "Drainage, Dyking and Irrigation Act, 1894," and may fix their salaries, which salaries shall be paid in like manner as the salary of the Inspector.

9. The Inspector of Dykes shall in respect of so much of the sum of $150,000 as shall be required and borrowed for his District, issue Bonds or Debentures at par payable to bearer in 40 years from the date thereof, in such amounts as shall be designated by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, bearing interest at the rate of 3½ per cent. per annum payable half-yearly, and such Debentures shall be countersigned by the Finance Minister and shall be by him deposited to the Order of the Government in some Chartered Bank in the Province, and collateral to such Debentures and Bonds the Inspector of Dykes shall issue and execute a deed in trust of such fines, rates and assessments, or any of them, and of the Sinking Fund created thereout, in favour of the Finance Minister, who, and whose successor in office, shall hold and deposit the same in the Treasury to the credit of the Province, and the said deed shall be drawn so as to secure the payment of the said Bonds and Debentures in such manner as shall be satisfactory to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and shall show the lands in respect of which the fines, rates and assessments given as security may be recoverable, the extent to which such lands shall be separately charges in respect of such loan, and contain such powers, conditions and agreements as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall require.

10. The works to be carried on under authority of these Rules shall be executed under the "Public Works Act," and the Inspector of Dykes and officers referred to in paragraph 8 hereof, shall be held to be an officer of the Lands and Works Department.
